Tygers Break Even in '77

This year's Tyger football team came up with a satisfactory .500 season. Although the Tygers were shut out in three of their games, they made up for it by skunking two other teams. The loss to Malabar was a disappointment, but the Tygers came back to stomp Madison the following week. The highlight of the season was a whirlwind comeback toward the end of the season to win the last two games of the season.

Outstanding players of the season were offensive lineman Mike Hoy for the second year in a row, offensive back Jerry Powell, defensive lineman Dennis Ferguson, and defensive back Robert Williams. Jeff Divelbiss won the Jimo Adams Award, while the coaches' award went to Dave Graber. Mike Hoy, Jerry Powell, and Jim Adams received the captains' awards.

Ray Bauhs made first team All Buckeye Conference. Named to second team were Powell, Twyman, Hoy, Williams, Adams, Ferguson, and Divelbiss.

Cross Country Team Looks to Future

The cross country team had a rather discouraging season, finishing with an 0-12 record. However, there was a good turnout for the team, so next year's prospects should be better.

Wayne Curry was the outstanding runner for the year. He not only qualified for district competition, but also captured the school record for two and one-half miles — 13:38.

Tygers placed fourth in the Buckeye Conference and tenth in the sectionals. Coach Halley Weaver led the cross country runners this year.

Tyger Girls Have Winning Season

The Tyger tennis team under the direction of Coach Laura Evilsizor finished their season with a 6-3 record this year. "The team improved its record greatly from last year, mostly because of experienced players. I'm sure we'll have a successful season next year too," said Coach Evilsizor.

Most valuable player award went to Janine Boocks for the second year in a row. Tami Jones was named most improved player, and Linda Wappner got the captain's award.

Golfers Face Tough Schedule

The Tyger golfers ended their rugged schedule of matches with a disappointing 1-18 record. They finished fifth in the Buckeye Conference tournaments.

Phil Warga created a first when he captured top honors as medalist for the third year in a row. He was also named captain, while Rick Krichbaum received the award for most improved. The team presented Coach Fairchild with a plaque at the close of the season for his coaching ability and his guidance through the year.

Volleyball Players Gain Experience

The '77 season was a bit discouraging to the Tiger volleyball team, ending with a 2-13 record. Most important players on offense were Betty Hriesik, Sally Lehman, and Monica Holzwarth, with Trisha Walker, Hillary Dalton, and Armanda Blakley on defensive.

Named most valuable player was Monica Holzwarth, while Joyce Phillips captured the most improved award. The captain's award went to Betty Hriesik.

With the improvement shown by all players, both Mrs. Creasy and Mrs. Money are looking forward to a better season next year.

Tygers Beat Falcons, Rams

Once again this year the Tygers, along with many other schools in the Midwest, had to face the problem of closed schools for long periods of time. Practice time was cut and many games had to be postponed, some on the very afternoon of the game when unexpected snow storms hit. Despite this the team averaged 57 points per game, while their opponents averaged only 58.6 points per game. The season ended with a 7-11 record. Beating cross-town rivals, Malabar and Madison, was a highlight for the fans.

Kevin Carter was named the most valuable player of the season. Other awards went to Jerry Powell, best foul shooter, Wayne Curry, most assists; Evie Feagin, most rebounds. Carter and Curry were honorary co-captains. The team was coached by Jim Goode and his assistant Ken Fairchild.

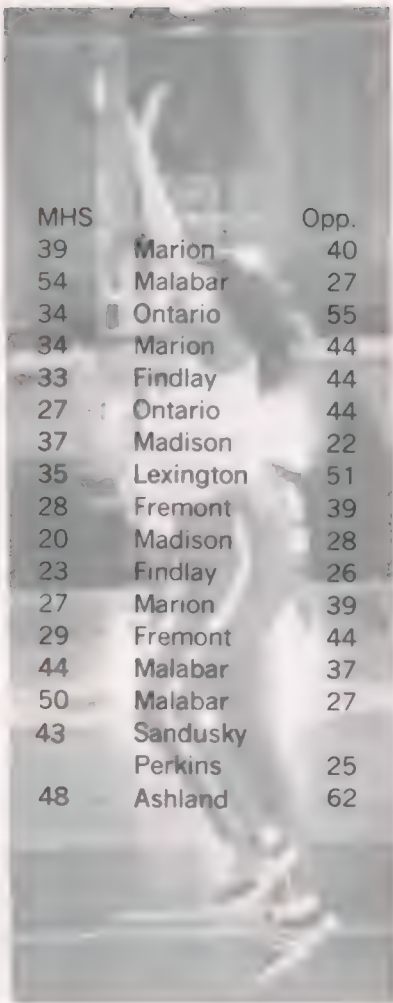

Coach Ron Hetler reported that the J.V. team came up with a 5-11 record this season. David Givand was the leading scorer and the leading defensive rebounder. Others named were Melvin McDowell, leading offensive rebounder; Todd Kochheiser, best foul shooter; Jack Cline, most assists in one game; and Brian Williams, most assists for the season. This team had the best offensive record in the last four years.

Tyger Girls Show Improvement

The Tyger girls' basketball team ended their season with a 5-12 record this year. Coach John Miefert emphasized that the girls really improved their last seven games, working together and playing good team basketball. The team showed their position in the city by beating Malabar all three games and beating Madison one of the two games they played.

Awards went to Becky Roessler for most rebounds, and to Carline Curry for most assists and best foul shooting percentage. Co-captains were Betty Hriesik and Linda Wappner.

Matmen Take 1st in Gorman

Tyger wrestlers had a good season, taking first place in the 18th Annual J. C. Gorman Tournament. Leading the matmen this year were Coaches Bill Flanagan and Clarence Jacocks.

Vince Petrella was a district champion and qualified for state competition. Jeff Divelbiss, who also qualified for state, was a tournament champion at Galion, Marion, and in the J. C. Gorman. Lavell Williams was both a Galion and a Gorman champion, while Dennis Ferguson and John Haney also took Gorman championships.

Special awards went to Jeff Divelbiss for most pins, Dennis Ferguson for most improved wrestler, and Roger Owens as outstanding sophomore. Dana Richie and Jeff Divelbiss were named honorary captains, and Divelbiss was also voted the outstanding wrestler of the season.

Reigning at the J. C. Gorman tournament this year were Queen Denita Williams and her court, Barb Berry, Beth Gaubatz, Sue Sertell, and Diana Withrow.

Tygers Gain Sectional Crown

The Tyger Baseball Team, also known as Roger's Dodgers, played a fine season this spring as they captured the sectional crown. The Tygers, led by team captain Tom Cline, turned out an 11-8 record.

Tim Baldridge led the team in hitting with an average of .403. At the sports banquet he was given awards for both leading hitter, and offensive efficiency points. The defensive award went to Jeff Frontz and Tom Crotty brought in the most improved award. Eric Lookenott was named most valuable player on the team.

Softball Proves Popular Sport

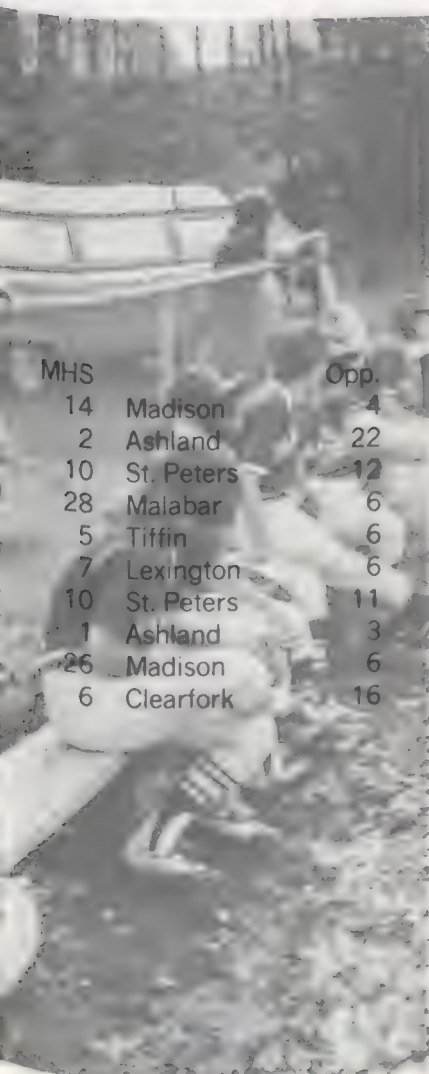

This year forty-two girls came out for Tyger softball. Six returned from last year's squad, and after three weeks of conditioning, the varsity team of fifteen was set.

The most impressive aspect of the team was the hustle and determination; this was shown by the close scores in four of the six losses. The main disappointment was the weather; six games were rained out and couldn't be rescheduled because of more rain.

Standouts this year were seniors Betty Hriesik, who did a great job at center and on second, Linda Simpson, on third and in left field, and Linda Wappner, who was called on to pitch, catch, play left, and cover third. Carline Curry produced the highest batting average of .603, while Cindy Beard and Becky Roessler handled most of the pitching duties. With only four graduating seniors this year next year's Tygers look to be in contention come tournament time.

Tygers Win State Championship

The Tyger trackmen really brought pride to Senior High when they won the Mehock Relays and then went on to realize their dream of a state championship.

District champs were Ivan Peoples in the 100 and the 220, Wayne Curry in the 440, and DelRay Feagin in the 120 yard high hurdles. The 880 relay team of Peoples, Feagin, Dana Richie and Jerry Powell and the mile relay team of Peoples, Curry, Mike Davis, and David Givand not only won district championships but earned All-Ohio honors as well. Both teams set school records, with the mile relay team taking first in the state, and the 880 team taking a second place finish.

Peoples also came in first in the state in the 220 and set a new school record. Feagin set a record in the 120 highs and finished third in the state.

Coach Lanier and his assistants, Coach Andress and Coach Jacocks, named Wayne Curry captain, while Ivan Peoples captured awards for most points and most valuable team member.

Track Stars Set 7 Records

This was the first winning season ever for the Tyger Girls' Track Team, and they made it a great one. Seven new records were set during the year.

Julia Finlayson set a sectional record in the high jump with a jump of 5'5". She placed first in the district and then went on to place 15th in the state.

Other records were set by Tebara Blaising in the mile run, Casey Bonner in the 100 meter hurdles, and by the girls running the 880 medley relay, the 880 yard relay, the 440 yard relay, and the mile relay.

The 880 yard relay team of Cathy Pointer, Ronnie Shoulders, Sandy Carr, and Denita Williams set a new sectional record of 1:48.7. They did the 440 yard relay in 52.0.

Awards went to Denita Williams as honorary captain and most valuable player. Sandy Carr shared most valuable player honors and took a three year varsity as well. Julia Finlayson was named most improved.

Tyger Netters Have Disappointing Season

The Tyger Tennis Team got off to a slow start this year, as they were unable to find a coach. Finally the coaching responsibilities were divided among Coach Goode, Coach Flanagan, and Mr. Plough, so that the team would have a chance to compete.

Mark Browarsky was the only three year man on the squad. Others playing varsity were Cecil Bradley, Virgil Cates, Jerry Princehorn, Todd Long, Todd Kochheiser, and William Franklin. On reserve were Ron Marvicsin, Jeff Eisaman, David Akers, Melvin McDowell, and Victor Davis. With most of these returning, next year should see some improvement.

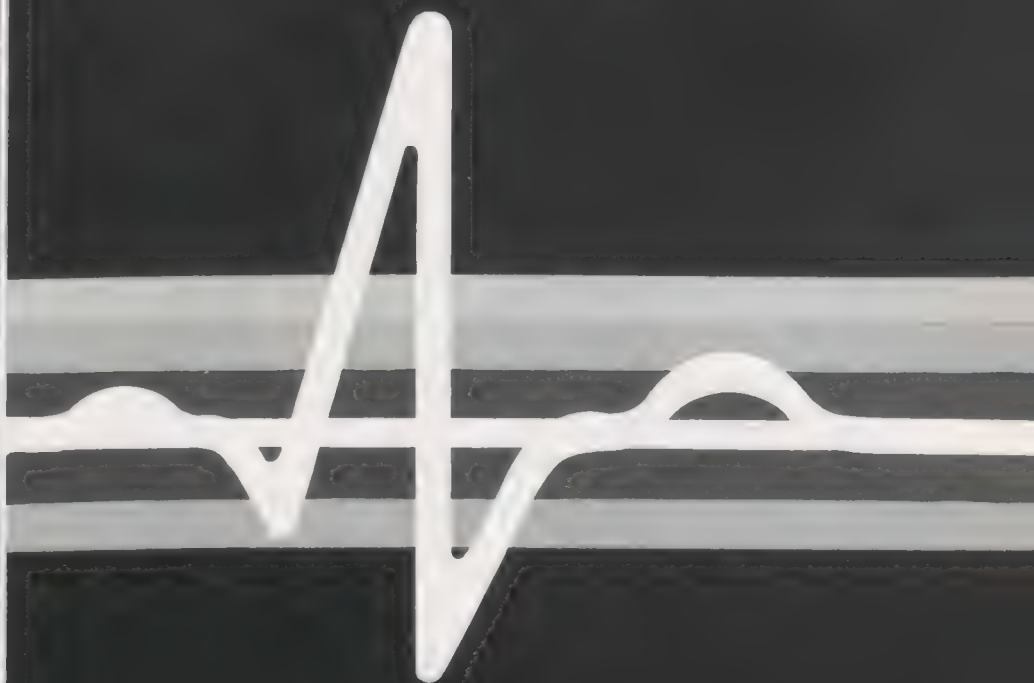

Special awards went to Mark Browarsky for most points and to Todd Kochheiser as most improved player.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming '77 Staged by Juniors

After much hard work the Class of '79 presented Homecoming '77, "The Long and Winding Road." The week began with the election of Queen Shelley Stevens and her court, Sheri Sertell, Libby Penix, Nada Burton, and Lenora Bradley.

On Thursday evening a bonfire was held at Arlin Field with Mr. Maul and his hot air balloon there to help psyche up the team.

For the two assemblies on Friday morning the auditorium was transformed into a showcase of color, using floral arrangements and a huge mural to carry out the theme. Claire Smith and Kevin Meehan were selected from over fifty juniors to serve as Master and Mistress of Ceremonies for the occasion. 1976 Queen Tammy Taylor crowned Shelley, while Jim Adams, Jerry Powell, Jeff Divelbiss, and Mike Hoy presented her the game ball.

An informal dance was held on Friday night, and the week came to a thrilling close with the Tygers' 26-23 victory over Lorain Sr.

Seniors Stage Varsity Varieties

The seniors staged their annual production of Varsity Varieties on November 17 and 18 this year. The variety show featured nineteen acts with sophomores, juniors, and seniors all participating. The Jazz Band provided music for intermission and accompaniment to some of the acts.

The theme chosen was "That Was Then, This Is Now." MC's James Owens and Diane Bowers portrayed a couple moving to a new home. As they pack to move, they come upon an old trunk containing many souvenirs of the past. They reminisce about their past and discuss the changes that time has brought.

Directing the production was Jeff Jones, assisted by Tammy Eichler. Debbie McCruter and Ed Richter served as co-producers, while Velma Lindsay handled the business.

Instrumental Music Popular With Students

The marching band provided good shows for all football games this year and went on to offer concerts and participate in contests during the rest of the year. Activities took place under the direction of Mr. Hall, Mr. Brown, and the senior officers, Kathy Booker, president; Amy Brunk, vice-president; and Pam Morey, treasurer.

Pep band played during the basketball games, while the Jazz Band provided music for Varsity Varieties, club programs in town, and some area proms.

Students in orchestra performed at several concerts, the most popular of which was the Christmas concert in conjunction with the vocal music department.

John Brent was winner of the John Philip Sousa Award, while Kathy Booker was recipient of the National School Orchestra Association Award. The Louis Armstrong Jazz Award went to James Taylor. Kathy Erdenberger and Lora Adams were named most improved players, while director's awards went to Sally Lehman, Amy Brunk, Kelly O'Donnell, Linda Wappner, and James Tucker.

Choirs Earn High Ratings

The vocal music program, under Ms. Michele Shafer, offered students a variety of singing experiences. The usual high standards that the groups have set in the past were maintained.

The Rock Choir performed in Varsity Varieties, in a special concert, and at various meetings and clubs in town. On February 3, they went to Dayton for the 1978 OMEA State Convention. They also performed in Columbus at a well known restaurant, The Dells.

Choir members performed at the District Choir Contest and at Solo and Ensemble contests.

Linda Simpson and James Tucker served as co-presidents this year. Award winners at the end of the year were outstanding seniors Denita Williams, Linda Simpson, James Tucker, and James Taylor. Bob Johnson was named most valuable choir member. Sharing most improved honors were Charles Roberts, Jimmie Gordon, Tyrone Darson, and James Owens.

Cheerleaders, Pep Club Promote Spirit

The cheerleaders and Pep Club did a good job of promoting spirit and instilling Tiger pride in the students at Senior High. Mrs. Kohutek served as Pep Club advisor, while Mrs. Moore started her first year with the cheerleaders.

Officers of Pep Club were Trisha Walker, president; Lori Sqrow, vice-president; Cindy Harding, secretary; Diane Bowers, treasurer. The executive committee planned several pep assemblies, sponsored buses to all away football games, put signs on players' lockers each season, and kept the bulletin board in the main hall up to date. Spirit buttons replaced the old membership cards for members.

The highlight of the year for the cheerleaders was the purchase of new jackets. Although the cheerleaders earned part of the money themselves, a welcome donation from the booster club gave them enough to buy the jackets.

COE, IOE, DCT Learn Skills

The highlight of the year for seniors in the COE and IOE programs was a trip to Lexington, Kentucky, in mid-April. They toured IBM as well as many of the sites of Lexington. COE collected for muscular dystrophy, while IOE visited United Telephone, Lumberman's, Kemper Insurance, and North Central Technical College. COE officers were President Rhonda Day, Vice-President Linda White, Secretary Beth Gaubatz, and Treasurer Dana Favers. IOE officers were President Linda Taylor, Vice-President Velma Lindsay, Secretary Robin Hankins, and Treasurer Freda Kennebrew. Advisors are Mr. Neuerman and Mr. Groff.

Junior IOE Steno and IOE Clerk-typists had several speakers, took field trips to various businesses, and had projects. Lazarus sent in hairdressers to demonstrate and style the girls' hair. Steno officers were President Tracy Blaising, Vice-President Hillary Dalton, Secretary Sheila Bradshaw and Treasurer Julie Oberlin. Mrs. Williams is the advisor. Clerk-typists elected Pam Owens, president; Becky Fox, vice-president; Tammy Gibson, secretary; and Sheliya Shepherd, treasurer. Mrs. Miller is the advisor.

DCT under Mr. Finley held several social events during the year and visited Fisher Body. Officers were Robert Koch, president; Debbie Johnson, vice-president; Diana Stone, secretary; and Pat Thompson, treasurer.

Vocational Clubs Follow Students' Interests

This year's DECA group, under Mr. Davis went to the Fall Delegates Conference in Columbus. Also seven people placed in district competition and went to state contest. Officers were Diana Withrow, president; Debbie Stewart, vice-president; Kim Gall, secretary; and Julie Leedy, treasurer.

The Vocational Drafting Club and the Electronics VICA club went to Wright-Patterson in Dayton on a field trip. Heading up the drafting club were Luther Branham, president; Greg Jackson, vice-president; Ron Wilson, treasurer; Mr. Mollica, advisor. The electronics group is run by Burt Harvey, president; Steve Morris, vice-president Don Burge, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Smith, advisor.

Mr. Derr's OWA group took ten field trips and had over thirty speakers this year. They were given newspaper coverage over their police department project. Officers were Tom Lovelace, president; Candy Kiser, vice-president; Goldie Larck, secretary; and Mary Ratliff, treasurer.

Students Assist in Offices

Again this year, students assisted in the various offices during their study hall periods. They helped the secretaries by delivering passes to students, filling teachers' mailboxes, filing, and doing any other odd jobs that needed to be done. Monitors worked in the main office, attendance office, counselors' office, and Mr. Henderson's office.

Shelli Phillips helped Mr. Neuman in the treasurer's office by taking in money from various club treasurers and teachers and filling out pay-ins and pay-outs. Debbie Miller worked as an assistant to Mrs. Markham in the counselor's office and later filled in for Mrs. Kochheiser in Mr. Henderson's office.

Library aides checked books in and out for students, returned their ID cards, put books back on the shelves, and helped with any other jobs that the librarian needed done.

Mr. Sauder had students to help sell supplies in the bookstore before school in the mornings and during the lunch hours.

Black Culture Club, Science Research Offer Variety

Officers of the Black Culture Club were James Tucker, president; Tony Leverette, vice-president; Pam Avery, secretary; Dianne Muffett, treasurer; and Mike Davis, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Pugh served as advisor of the group. The highlight of the year's activities was the fashion show held in January. Clothes were loaned from various stores at Richland Mall.

The annual Science Research Day was held on March 14 and 15, this year. Of the twenty students entering projects, four were judged superior. These students, Sue Billingsley, Steve Finical, Irene George, and Kim Elkins were then eligible for district competition at Ashland College on April 1. All received excellents there.

Clubs Stimulate Student Interest

The major projects for the Key Club this year were working with the Career Exploration Project for sophomores and sponsoring the Relays dance in April. Dave Ott served as president; Augie Bales, vice-president; Randy Campbell, secretary; Dave Graber, treasurer; Mr. Gross and Mr. McVicar, advisors.

Varsity M, under Mr. Au, worked at all girls' basketball games and helped out at the relays. Officers were Mike Hoy, president; Sally Lehman, vice-president; Lori Sqrow, secretary; Sue Billingsley, treasurer.

Miss Olszewski served as advisor to the German Club, with Robyn Kegley, president; Chris Brinley, vice-president; Laura Gilliam, secretary; and Shelly Etzel, treasurer. They sold candles as a project and had several social outings.

Red Cross brought the Bloodmobile to Senior High twice this year and collected fresh fruit for the nursing homes at Thanksgiving. Giving their time to this group were Tony Leverette, president; Claire Smith, vice-president; Jeanette Hazen, secretary; Pam Roberts, treasurer; Mrs. Mudra, advisor.

Drama Department Presents The Crucible

The first school play, The Crucible, was presented on November 2, 3, 4. The cast held a student matinee on the 2nd and played to two very receptive audiences on the evenings of the 3rd and 4th. The play was directed by Mr. William Asher.

The Crucible revolves around a town plagued with witchcraft. One innocent person after another is accused and thrown into jail until the conscience and determination of one man to set them free arises. Even though his attempt is futile and he is eventually killed, a lesson is learned by all who are involved, and the mass hysteria is ended.

"Brides of March" Well Received

The second school play, "The Brides of March," was presented on March 29, 30, and 31, to three very receptive audiences.

The comedy revolves around a British ex-Army captain (Jeff Jones) who inherits five harem girls when he saves a shiek's life during the war. The girls arrive when Tony's wife (Diane Bowers) is away, and he must think of a way to get rid of them without offending the shiek. The tension and comedy builds as Tony turns to his brother (Doug Wertz) for help and finds that Ken is only interested in taking advantage of the situation. Eventually with the help of his parents (Dennis Rock and Monica Holzwarth) Tony gets rid of the girls, makes up with his wife, and gets his household returned to normal.

Four One-Acts Presented

The last production of the year consisted of four one act plays, two each presented at student matinees and all four at an evening performance.

"The Love Knot" concerns a "Dear Abby" type character who gets tired of giving advice and deliberately advises two couples wrong to see what happens. Jeff Jones, Monica Holzwarth, David Akers, Karen Billingsley, Dave Holbrook, Victor Davis, and Tammy Eichler had roles.

"The Old Oak Encounter" concerns a nasty old man who gets mad at his neighbor's children for playing in his tree. When he calls them a name, the parents come to call. Curtis McFarland, David Borrer, Robyn Kegley, Sue Billingsley, and Doug Wertz had parts.

"Filiation" is about a family of the future who become concerned about the increased police patrol of their neighborhood and panic when they hear a knock on the door. Holding roles were Keith Coleman, Kim Yetzer, Tony Yetzer, and Dawn Bradrick.

Dave Brown, Lori Clay, David Borrer, Ed Richter, and Ron Marvicsin starred in "The Monkey's Paw", a story about a family who receives a magical charm that can grant wishes. However, they aren't prepared for the way in which the wishes come true.

Publications Staffs Record School Year

Chosen to head the 1978 Manhigan Staff were co-editors, Tom Crotty and Dave Ott. The staff attended a workshop at Park Place in October, while two staff members attended a more comprehensive two-day workshop at the Holiday Inn before school started in the fall. Mr. Gross once again served as editorial advisor.

Mr. Robinson and the Hyphonerian staff put out eight issues of the newspaper this year. Mike Hoy and Pat Cropper were chosen as co-editors, with Nora Jessop and Scott Guthrie assigned to news, Mike Hoy and Linda Wappner to sports, and Jay Berger to features. Mark Browarsky took pictures for the Hyphonerian while George Danas provided pictures for the yearbook.

After an absence of one year, the Spectrum staff once again organized to produce a school literary magazine. Heading the staff were Kelly O'Donnell, editor; Jane Lewis, assistant editor; Colette Smith, secretary; and Amy Brunk, treasurer. Miss Papenhausen is the advisor.

Mr. Au's Business Staff handled ads, sales, and distribution for both the newspaper and yearbook staffs. Cindy Harding was manager of the yearbook, while Missi Yoakam took charge of the newspaper.

Students Offer Time to Sr. High

Student Government provided many worthwhile projects this year. The Christmas basket projects resulted in 110 needy families receiving food for the holidays. The first student handbook in five years was compiled, printed and handed out to all students, and Superstars Day was once again added to the calendar after a lapse of a year. Officers were James Tucker, president; Rusty White, vice-president; Mike Hoy, treasurer; and Rosetta Garcia, secretary. Mr. Goode advised the group.

National Honor Society, first under the advisorship of Mrs. Imhoff and then Mr. Pugh, was headed by President Monica Holzwarth, Vice-President Jeff Frontz, Secretary Colette Smith, and Treasurer Denita Williams. Thirty-one seniors and twenty juniors were inducted in the Spring at the annual Honors Dinner.

Monica Holzwarth was selected to attend Girls' State at Capital University, while Pat Cropper and Mark Browarsky went to Ohio University to Boys' State.

Classes of '78, '79, '80 Plan Busy Year

The '77-'78 school year has been a busy one for all three classes. The seniors and their advisors, Miss Papenhausen and Mr. Gross, started planning for Varsity Varieties right after school started. Before the mid-November production date, however, seniors were well into the Christmas orange sale. Planning class day, the prom, and commencement took most of the seniors' time during second semester.

Homecoming was the major project for the juniors and their advisors, Mrs. Kohutek and Mr. Lull. They held another dance, a slave sale, and sold candy sticks as major projects during the year.

The sophomores got off to a good start when they elected officers in the Fall. Mrs. Lewis was asked to serve as advisor to the Class of 1980. Projects during the year included a T-shirt sale, a dance, a pizza sale that was quite successful and fun, and concluded with a class party in May.

Seniors Get Recognition

Seniors were recognized for their achievements at the Class Day program on May 30. Class members, faculty, and guests were welcomed by President Jeff Bradshaw. Vice-President Trisha Walker served as hostess for the event.

Monica Holzwarth was named valedictorian, while Sally Lehman took salutatorian honors. All seniors in the top ten per cent were given gold cords and tassels.

Jeff Bradshaw and Monica Holzwarth were named outstanding seniors by the University Club. Runners-up were Rosetta Garcia, Sally Lehman, Trisha Walker, Pat Cropper, Mike Hoy, and Rick Krichbaum.

At the conclusion of the awards, Mr. Plough, who received three standing ovations from seniors, was presented a grandfather clock as a gift from the entire student body in recognition for his years of service and friendship to the students of Mansfield Senior High.

Snow Trails Ski Lodge was the setting for the senior prom held on Friday, June 2. "Where Quiet Waters Flow" was chosen as the theme. A flower filled pool and fountain erected on the outside balcony at the Lodge served as a focal point for the theme. Inside the tables were covered with candles and floral centerpieces in pastel shades. The dance floor was transformed by glittering silver columns and crepe paper streamers.

Following a buffet dinner featuring roast beef and ham, seniors and their guests danced to the music of Walt Keppler Jr. until midnight. The punch fountain and the pool proved popular spots for cooling off during the evening.

At 1:00 a.m. the party moved on to Richland Mall Cinema where prom goers could choose either "The Spy Who Loved Me" or "Murder by Death." Bowling and pool at Park Lanes concluded the last social event of the year for seniors.

331 Seniors Get Diplomas

Seniors, faculty, parents, and friends gathered at Arlin Field on Saturday, June 10, at 6:15 p.m. for combined baccalaureate and commencement exercises. President Jeff Bradshaw gave the welcome speech.

Reve. James Tucker and Rev. Benny Hart, fathers of seniors James Tucker and Benita Hart, gave the invocation and scripture reading respectively. The baccalaureate message was given by the Rev. Michael Tynan, whose topic was the "Creation of Man."

Other speakers were Monica Holzwarth, class valedictorian, and James Tucker, Student Government President, who spoke of the past achievements of their fellow class members and looked to the future as well. Principal Arlo Plough spoke of the stature of Senior High and its students and presented the class for the awarding of diplomas.

After all 381 seniors had received their diplomas, they turned their tassels and marched from the stadium. The benediction was given by the Rev. Joel King, Sr.

FACULTY

To Arlo D. Plough

. . . who has given fifteen years to Mansfield Senior High, eleven of them as principal; who has always stood up for what he felt was best for the students and faculty of the school; who has given freely of himself and his time so that we might have better lives; and, most of all, who has been our friend . . .

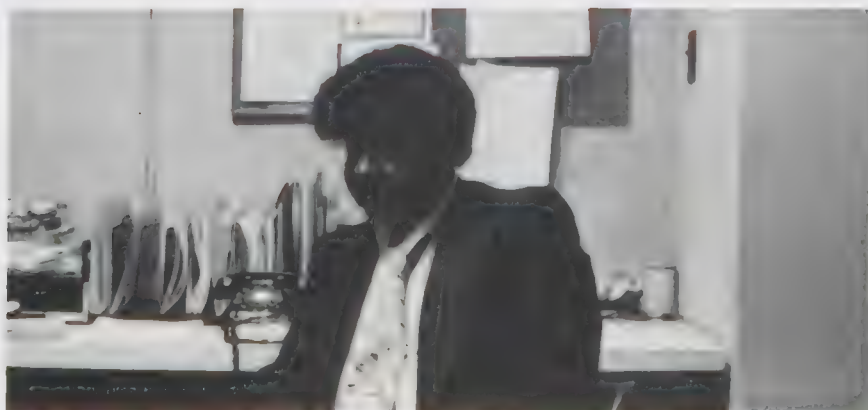

. . . We Dedicate
This 1978
